Why do Catholics do that??

What is Divine Mercy Sunday?

In a series of revelations to St. Maria Faustina Kowalska in the 1930's, our Lord called for a special feast day to be celebrated on the Sunday after Easter. Today, we know that feast as Divine Mercy Sunday, named by Pope St. John Paul II at the canonization of St. Faustina on April 30, 2000.

The Lord expressed His will with regard to this feast in His very first revelation to St. Faustina. In all, St. Faustina recorded 14 revelations from Jesus concerning His desire for this feast.

Nevertheless, Divine Mercy Sunday is NOT a feast based solely on St. Faustina's revelations. Indeed, it is not primarily about St. Faustina – nor is it all together a new feast. The Second Sunday of Easter was already a solemnity as the Octave Day of Easter. The title of "Divine Mercy Sunday" does, however, highlight the meaning of the day.

Stewardship:

- Stewardship Conference April 13th – Registration information at the back of Church or contact the Rectory. All are welcome to attend!
- Thank you to everyone that has turned in their Stewardship forms. There are still forms in the back of Church if you need one. Thank you to everyone who has taken a photo for the directory. If you need to turn in a photo and are not homebound or in a nursing home, then they will cost $15. Pictures can be turned in at the Rectory.

Jesus said to them again, "Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you." And when he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them, "Receive the Holy Spirit. Whose sins you forgive are forgiven them, and whose sins you retain are retained."

John 20:21-23

God shares his mercy through the Resurrection of Jesus. Even in times of doubt, like Thomas, God's merciful love is there for us to receive. By the power of the Holy Spirit and the Sacrament of Reconciliation, we surrender ourselves to his mercy.

Pope Francis Special Intention for Easter

Risen Lord,

During this Easter season, we pray that the dignity and worth of women would be recognized in every culture. Help us bring an end to the discrimination women face in many parts of the world.

Bishop Shawn McKnight April Intention

For a greater awareness of and respect for our common home in building an authentic human ecology: May we be good stewards of the gift of creation in defending all human life.
