Pastor's Pen

In the Lord's Vinyard

"We are called by name to follow Christ and to walk on the path he has traced for us. In other words, we are called into the life of Christ for the salvation of our souls, and we have a common mission to accomplish for a reward. This reward is the promised eternal life. Mindful of this, St. Paul intimated, " For me life is Christ, and death is gain. If I go on living in the flesh, that means fruitful labor for me" (cf Philippians 1:20). As long as the day lasts, we cannot but live for Christ who has called us into his vineyard.

Christ, the Lord has the master-plan who acts in his own way. Ours is to obey his biding and act accordingly, and in a manner that pleases him. The good news is that, notwithstanding the time of our individual call to duty, nobody shall forfeit his or her reward if he or she stays at the post till the sounds of the trumpet for the Great Assembly.

"Short cuts are dangerous", says the wise. Also, as the saying goes "Time and tide wait for no man". Therefore, we need not stay idle all day in faith and faith practices since we can't predict the end of time. Once there is life in us, we must seek the face of the Lord through prayer by participating in the sacramental of the church; we must walk the talk of our faith and keep to the teachings of Christ; we must uphold morals and embrace a life of virtues. To this Prophet Isaiah speaks, "Seek the Lord while he may be found, call him where he is near." (Isaiah 55:6-9). May the Lord bestow needed blessings on us to be hardworking laborers.

Peace! Fr. Ussher
