Why do Catholics do that??

What are the benefits of Reconciliation?

If a person has cut himself off from God by a grave and deliberate act of disobedience against God (that is, by mortal sin,) the sacrament of Reconciliation reunites the soul to God, and sanctifying grace is restored to the soul.

At the same time, the sin itself is forgiven. Just as darkness disappears from a room when the light is turned on, so too must sin disappear from the soul with the coming of sanctifying grace. Even when a person goes to Reconciliation without any mortal sin on the soul, the sacrament imparts to the soul an increase in sanctifying grace. This means that there is a deepening and strengthening of the divine-life which helps unite the soul to God.

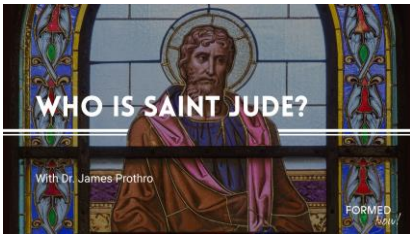

And always, any venial sins which the penitent may have committed and for which he is truly sorry are forgiven. These are the lesser and more common sins which do not cut us off from God but still hinder, like clouds across the sun, the full flow of his grace to the soul.

RCIA

If you've been coming to Mass for a while, but are not Catholic, we invite you to look deeper into the Catholic faith. St. Bonaventure plans to start discussion sessions for persons interested in learning more about our Catholic faith. We invite you to learn what Catholics believe in, in an open and welcoming environment. We plan to dive into the Catholic faith using reason, scripture, science, and experience. Any question you have about the Church or life, regardless of how difficult or perplexing, is welcome and often leads to the more engaging discussions. If you or someone you know would like to know more about our Catholic faith, please pass their name to or encourage them to call the rectory or Michael Krumpelman (660-376-2725 ; 660-240-1671). Typically, the group is small enough that we can work around everyone's obligations and schedule the meetings at a time most convenient for everyone.

This week on Formed:

**Pope Francis Special Intention for October

Holy Spirit

Help your Church to sustain a loving, synodal lifestyle in every way. May we promote the participation, communion, and mission shared by priests, men and women religious, and the laity.

**Bishop Shawn McKnight October Intention

For a greater conversion of hearts to God who loves us so much; that in living the stewardship way of life, we may avoid any sense of entitlement in our relationships with God and one another.

Vocation Ministry

Saturday November 2nd, from 9-3pm, at Alphonse J. Schwartze Memorial Catholic Center in Jefferson City there will be a workshop for cultivating vocations in our parish. The goal is to equip Catholic laity to form a vibrant vocation ministry that promotes vocations to the priesthood, marriage, and consecrated life in their parish. Presentation by national speaker Bob McMorrow and you will learn about vocation ministries as well as create a plan for your parish.

If you are interested, please contact James Stella at 573-999-4910
